

'The Spirit of Adventure: towards a better world'

Event Description:

Join us in a public forum addressed by Colin Mortlock, international author & explorer whose publications have covered topics including the nature of risk, the benefits of being adventurous, & lessons learned from challenge & discovery. Colin will be joined by Norm Hunter, educator & founding co-Principal of Hillbrook Anglican School. Norm has a profound belief in the values to be learnt from the outdoors, & strong ideas on how Outdoor Education offers important experiences that prepare young people for the difficult world of the 21st century .

When: Monday 7 June 2010 | 3.30pm-6.30pm

Where: QUT, Kelvin Grove Campus, F Block, Room 509 (See attached map. Contact QORF for details on free shuttle bus from City. Onsite parking available).

Tickets/Bookings: $10.00 (incl. GST) per person (inc. light snack). Please see booking form attached for payment details.

Book Signing: Colin Mortlock 'Spirit of Adventure: towards a better world''

Further information: For further information, contact the QORF office:
Ph: 07 3369 9455 Email: info@qorf.org.au